On 1/28/25 at 1:51 PM, V14 (Social Service Director) stated that there is an outside company that manages the Colbert Program for the facility and that a representative from that company comes to the facility to screen residents to see if they want to enter the program. V14 stated that [V14] does not know when this company comes in the facility because they have their own scheduling system. V14 stated the facility does not provide any education materials or information about the Colbert program to resident when they get admitted to the facility because the outside company does that when they meet with the resident." V14 stated that if a resident verbalizes the desire to be a member, the facility will contact the outside company to see the resident.

The facility provided a list of residents who are Colbert Class Members and revealed there are 10 members currently residing in the facility. The facility's daily census dated 1/28/25 shows 239 residents with 3 private pay residents.
