

Immunization Recommendations for 2026-2027 Respiratory Virus Season

Age/Condition	Flu	RSV	COVID-19
 Children	All 6 months and older	- All infants under the age of 8 months who are not protected through their pregnant parent's vaccination - Certain children ages 8-19 months who are at increased risk for severe RSV disease	- All children ages 6-23 months - All children ages 2-18 years with at least one risk factor for severe disease - Children whose parents or guardians want them to get a COVID-19 vaccine
 Pregnancy	All	All never vaccinated pregnant people during weeks 32-36 of pregnancy	All, including after delivery and during breastfeeding
 Adults	All	- All never vaccinated adults ages 50-74 years at increased risk of severe RSV disease - All never vaccinated adults ages 75 years and older	All

Find more information:

dph.illinois.gov/immunization